

College and Career Ready Successful Life Outcomes for Students with Emotional Behavioral Disabilities

It's all about Positive and Creative Connections

Thursday, January 12, 2017

8:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

----- CESA 1 -----

N25W23131 Paul Road
Pewaukee, WI 53072

Presenters: Jennifer Hilgendorf, TIG Urban Transition Coordinator, and Brian Kenney, TIG Southern Regional Coordinator

This training will focus on strategies to connect students with Emotional Behavioral Disabilities with supports in their communities and will promote success in their postsecondary choices.

Attendees will take away:

- Framework for success based on proven research and data.
- “How to” strategies for identifying, building and maintaining community supports
- Approaches for individualizing academic programs to create a foundation for postsecondary success
- Strategies to increase stability in postsecondary placement

Register at <http://witig.org/event-details.html?id=4042>

This event is FREE. Lunch will be on your own. Seating is limited, so register early!

For more information, contact Jennifer Hilgendorf, TIG Urban Transition Coordinator via email: jhilgendorf@cesa1.k12.wi.us or via phone: (262) 787-9500