Creating Positive Post-School Outcomes - Together

The WiCoT (Wisconsin Community on Transition) brings together state and local leaders committed to improving transition outcomes for youth with disabilities across Wisconsin. By joining, you become part of a collaborative network focused on best practices, shared learning, and real-world impact.

Our Foundation

Mission: Inform and empower local County Communities on Transition (CCOTs) and key partners to consistently implement transition best practices in schools and communities.

Vision: Build and maintain structures that support youth with disabilities to make informed decisions throughout their transition to adulthood.

Purpose: To serve as liaisons to foster communication and collaboration in support of successful post-school outcomes for youth with disabilities.

Testimonials

Be part of the conversation and help shape brighter futures for students with disabilities!

- WiCoT provides a meaningful opportunity to collaborate with statewide partners to strengthen transition planning for youth with disabilities and impact local communities.
- WiCoT helps me connect with other professionals who are committed to positive transition outcomes for students and families throughout Wisconsin.
- The WiCoT gives me a space to learn and grow as a transition professional. It gives me a platform to freely share ideas and concerns; ask questions; and find resources.
- WiCoT has helped me think bigger statewide while building connections that strengthen our daily collaboration with agency partners.
